Body of Contract (paraphrased)

1. Payments. The PHA pays housing assistance payments to the owner only for contract units listed on Exhibit A that are leased to and occupied by eligible families. Payment is due on the first day of the month.

2. Reexaminations. The PHA reexamines family income and composition at least annually. If a family fails to complete a reexamination, the PHA may hold or terminate assistance.

3. Housing quality. Contract units must comply with the PHA's inspection standard (NSPIRE-V). Life-threatening deficiencies must be corrected within 24 hours and other deficiencies within 30 days, or the PHA may abate payments.

4. Vacancies. No vacancy payments are made under this contract.

5. Rent adjustments. Rent to owner is redetermined at the owner's request or annually on the contract anniversary, subject to rent reasonableness.
